Adelphoi Village is a private, not-for-profit agency providing comprehensive, community-based treatment to boys and girls throughout Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Delaware. Adelphoi Village has been in operation for 40 yrs. It's a place where young people learn positive responses to life's pressures and challenges. Adelphoi Village provides programs and services designed to guide each youth on a path that will provide meaning, purpose and value in his/her life. Adelphoi Village operates programs in over 30 counties. In cooperation with Children and Youth agencies, Juvenile Probation, mental health agencies and school districts, Adelphoi Village provides services to youth from over 60 counties throughout Pennsylvania, as well as from West Virginia, Delaware, and Maryland.

The Department of Public Welfare's Office of Children, Youth, and Families (Department) conducted its annual licensing inspection of the Adelphoi Village Sweeney House Program on April 4, 2012 for the time period June 3, 2011 to June 3, 2012. The program is designed to accommodate boys with intensive supervision 24/7 in which residents will have the opportunity to work out their issues in a safe and secure environment. The staff also supervises them to, at, and from school. The only time they are not supervised is during earned home visits.

This program has a licensed capacity of 13 and at the time of the inspection there were 0 children in the program. This unit was just recently renovated and children will move in 6/5/2012.

During the inspection departmental staff: Conducted a walk through of the unit and no problems were noted, and the capacity was increased from 13 to 15 beds.

During the inspection the Department reviewed 42 personnel records. The new hire records are reviewed to ensure that the agencies hiring practices are compliant with the regulations. As a result of the personnel records review no issues were noted for those records.
