RE: Juniper Village at Meadville
455 Chestnut Street
Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335

Dear Ms. Musone

As a result of the Department's reconsideration regarding your Violation Report issued December 8, 2011, a revised Violation Report is being issued under the authority of 55 Pa.Code Ch. 2600 (relating to Personal Care Homes).

The revised Violation Report indicates that the Department has accepted the home's amended plan of correction and the violation of 2600.227d has been struck from the violation report.

The home's revised Violation Report is enclosed.

Sincerely,

42b A resident may not be neglected, intimidated, physically or verbally abused, mistreated, subjected to corporal punishment or disciplined in any way.	Residents #1 and #2 have been involved in multiple physical and verbal altercations since July 2010 requiring staff intervention. According to home's records, resident #2 is diagnosed with moderate to advanced Alzheimer's disease while resident #1 has impaired memory but is independent with ADLs. Resident #2 has also had verbal altercations with other residents. 7/27/10: Verbal argument between residents #1 and #2. Resident #1 alleged that resident #2 struck him/her and caused a laceration. 1/29/11: Resident #2 struck resident #1 with his/her walker during a verbal altercation. 3/12/11: Resident #1 verbally abused resident #2 and kicked his/her walker causing resident #2 to lose balance. Resident #2 then struck resident #1 with walker. Resident #1 also was threatening toward staff persons.	10/23/2011	This violation report is not correct. The following Plan of Correction is provided by JVC Meadville for compliance purposes only and does not constitute any admission of guilt or agreement with the violations stated here within. All altercations between these residents had been fully reported and disclosed to DPW per regulation and to Adult Protective Services and the local police department. All reports were fully investigated by Adult Protective Services and the Meadville Police Department and were concluded to be "unfounded" and at no time were charges filed. At all times, JVC Meadville fully cooperated with and followed the instructions of Adult Protective Services and the Police. JVC Meadville amended the support plan, utilized positive reinforcement/redirective techniques per DWP regulations, and conducted meetings with residents and PCA to review options. DPW did not respond to, investigate nor provide any direction to the facility regarding any of the previous altercations whatsoever. Per DPW instruction, Resident #1 was issued a 30 day notice of discharge. Resident #2 will be reassessed and will be relocated to a secure dementia placement or other location with necessary dementia programming. All residents and any new admission will be screened regarding combative/aggressive behaviors and classified as either low, medium or high risk of potential negative behaviors. Any medium or high risk will be reassessed for appropriateness of placement by physician and referred for additional services (psychological, etc) or alternative placement as directed by physician.
