Adelphoi Village is a private, not-for-profit agency providing comprehensive, community-based treatment to boys and girls throughout Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Delaware. Adelphoi Village has been in operation for 40 yrs. It's a place where young people learn positive responses to life's pressures and challenges. Adelphoi Village provides programs and services designed to guide each youth on a path that will provide meaning, purpose and value in his/her life. Adelphoi Village operates programs in over 30 counties. In cooperation with Children and Youth agencies, Juvenile Probation, mental health agencies and school districts, Adelphoi Village provides services to youth from over 60 counties throughout Pennsylvania, as well as from West Virginia, Delaware, and Maryland.

The Department of Public Welfare conducted a Licensing Inspection of Vincent Home on 4/9/2012 for the licensing year extending from 6/15/2011 to 6/15/2012. Vincent Home is licensed for 15 residents and at the time of the inspection there were 15 clients in the program. Vincent Home approaches treatment for sexually offending youth in a holistic and humanistic manner. Youths with these issues have definite sexual behavior patterns and their treatment is individualized to include help with past victimization, family dynamics, or any other specific problems.

During the inspection Departmental staff conducted a walk through of the unit and no problems were noted. The menus and staffing patterns were reviewed and there were no problems noted. The fire drill log and MAR's were reviewed and no problems were noted.

There were 3 children's files were reviewed and no problems were identified. Adelphoi Village's records are very well organized and the required ISP treatment plans are always individualized and updated as required. They keep up on the clients medical records and detailed educational records.

During the inspection the Department reviewed 42 personnel records. The new hire records are reviewed to ensure that the agencies hiring practices are compliant with the regulations. As a result of the personnel records review no issues were noted for those records

There were 3 children interviewed and those interviews revealed that the children feel safe and they also believe the staff is helpful and respectful. There was 1 staff member interviewed and the staff stated that training is always available and that the agency is quick to respond to the needs of the unit. The children remain safe in their environment and there are no issues regarding safety, well being or permanence.
