Description of Violation

House Bill No. 1785, The Influenza Awareness Act of 2016, requires that preparation and publication of information relating to the Influenza Awareness Act and the influenza vaccine is posted in a public place in the facility year-round. On 7/15/21 the Influenza Awareness information was not posted in the home.

Plan of Correction

Accept

The Influenza Awareness poster is currently posted at the employee time clock near the front entrance of the building.

An additional influenza poster was posted on the public bulletin board in Assisted Living.

The Influenza Awareness poster will remain on the public bulletin board in Assisted Living year round. The Assisted Living Administrator will verify its placement weekly for two months and will provide education to the staff that it should not be removed. Training will be completed by September 10, 2021
