Inspection Narrative

(Department) conducted an annual licensing inspection of Pressley Ridge School for the Deaf Building 3 on 0//10/2024 to 01/11/2024 for the licensing year 05/15/2024 to 05/15/2025. Pressley Ridge provided the WRO with an Organizational chart, copies of the annual audit and budget, a current list of the Board of Directors, copies of the minutes from the last board meeting, copies of insurance policies, and copies of the current program descriptions.

During the inspection, the Department reviewed 3 of the 5 agency's child files and all personnel files, which included new and tenured employees. There were interviews with 2 youths and 2 staff members. The youths reported to be safe within the program and were content with the programming provided. The two staff that were interviewed were very content with the training and support offered by the agency and made positive reports about the agency. The staff or youth reported no issues or concerns during the interviews during the inspection. All children's and personnel records complied with state and federal laws and regulations. There are no citations.
