Plan of CorrectionAccept ([REDACTED] - 05/03/2024)

Direct care staff members, to include staff member A, completed Professional Boundaries/Employee-Client Relationships training in February and March 2024, for a total of three training hours.

By May 8, 2024, the Executive Director will meet with staff member A to discuss the findings of this LIS and the requirements of this regulation (3800.32.c). The Executive Director will review the facility's professional expectations and the Seven Key Principles® as they relate to interactions with clients, focusing specifically on the key principle of Dignity and Respect. The Executive Director will document this meeting in staff member A's training file.

Throughout the next six months, training and mentoring with staff members will focus on various aspects of the Seven Key Principles®. Beginning May 7, 2024, the Leadership team will maintain an agenda item each month to review and discuss initiatives in the dorms to promote the application of the Seven Key Principles® in client care and treatment. The Executive Director will oversee this plan of correction.
