Inspection Narrative

The Department of Human Services, Northeast Regional Office of Children, Youth and Families completed an annual licensing inspection of Pathways Supervised Independent Living Program on March 25 26, 2025. During the past licensing year the program served 2 residents. During the inspection all staff records were reviewed, 1 resident record was reviewed and all administrative documentation was reviewed including fire drills. The program does not currently have any open homes so a physical site walkthrough could not be completed. No regulatory areas of noncompliance were noted during the inspection.
