Inspection Narrative

The Department of Human Services, Office of Children Youth and Families, Western Regional Office completed the annual licensing inspection of George Junior Republic from October 19th, 2026- October 22nd, 2026. The inspection included reviewing 10% of resident files and all personnel files, including terminated staff who worked at the facility during the licensing period. Walkthroughs of the facility were also completed. Interviews took place with the youth and staff. The interviews included feedback from the youth stating they enjoy the food, are able to understand their treatment plan and goals, and feel understood and supported by the staff at the agency. Staff interviews included feedback of feeling supported by their peers and administration, receiving adequate training for interacting with the youth and good communication on all levels. Special Needs 18 has not had any youth placed in it for the 2025-2026 licensing inspection year. A walkthrough of the building was completed, and it was found to be in compliance.
